Include the following in your web page

- Write a Java Script that asks the user for a name, then greets the user with "Hello" followed by the user name on the page based on time.
- Write a Java Script that collects the numbers from a page and then adds them up and prints them to a blank field on the page.
- Write a Java Script that prompts the user for a number and then counts them from 1 to that number displaying only the odd numbers.
- Write a Java Script to create a form with labels and submit button to provide feedback/hint to the user.
- Write a Java Script to create a form with a text box to ensure the field is not empty and have proper http:// else notify the user.
- Write a Java Script to create a number guessing game.---Beyond Syllabi---
- Write a Java Script to create a Factorials Table with JavaScript ---Beyond Syllabi---